

I believe K-love provides a possitive serve to the community, offering a possitive message. If a lpfm station is added instead I serious doubt it could offer such a possitive message. I am sure your aware even music can efect the way we think, most stations esp rap stations offer up foul language and no good messages in there music. Not K-Love however it give the community a possitive choice over other local stations. Thanks